Kenworth and Pendleton – two of the most esteemed names in comfort – have teamed to produce a truly inspired truck interior. Become one of the few to call it home.

You already know about Pendleton’s unequalled passion for craftsmanship, beauty, warmth and sense of home. You’ve seen it in the intricate patterns of Native American blankets inspired by ancient designs and legends. You’ve felt it in the softness of the lightweight and luxurious wool clothing they produce. And now you can experience that same level of comfort and luxury in Kenworth’s Limited Edition Pendleton Interior. Truly a work of art, it combines rich brown leather in seats and door pads, leather and suede sofa bed, wood trim, embroidered wool inserts, Pendleton mosaics, distinctive exterior badging and innovative touches you won’t find anywhere else. It also comes with a Pendleton blanket – naturally – and overnight bag. • Kenworth Limited Edition Pendleton Interior. The world will seem miles away.

Seat yourself – and passenger – in pure luxury. High-backed all-leather seats ride on a cushion of air and sport a distinctive Pendleton hand-stitched emblem.

Here’s a thoughtful touch you’ll appreciate: The Pendleton Limited Edition package includes Kenworth’s new optional armrests that fold back and stow behind the seats for easier, more open sleeper access.

Both doors feature seat-matching leather inserts with the Pendleton Limited Edition emblem.

The Pendleton Limited Edition also comes with leather-wrapped steering wheel, wood-trimmed dash and Kenworth GPS with MP3 player.

Currently available on Kenworth’s W900 with 72-inch AeroCab® Aerodyne® and 86-inch AeroCab sleepers.
